Frequently Asked Questions

Why is this new mail delivery process needed?

Postal mail remains an access point to introduce contraband and illicit drugs into correctional facilities, which poses a significant health and safety risk. This new process will increase safety while allowing incarcerated individuals to continue corresponding with loved ones in a timely manner.

How does the new mail processing system work?

- Non-legal mail is sent via PO Box to a central processing facility, operated by Pigeonly.
- All non-legal postal mail is opened, screened for contraband, and scanned into an electronic document that closely resembles the original hardcopy, including color.
- The scanned mail is shared electronically with Marin County Jail through a secure dashboard for further screening and review.
- The scanned mail is printed at Pigeonly's processing facility and shipped to Marin County Jail for distribution to the incarcerated recipients, completely eliminating the risk of contraband.
- For families and friends of incarcerated individuals, Pigeonly provides an easy-to-use website (www.pigeonly.com) that allows them to create, send, and track delivery of printed photos, letters, greeting cards, and postcards from a cell phone, tablet, or computer.

How is legal mail handled?

Attorneys will continue to send legal mail directly to the Jail for delivery to their incarcerated clients.

Marin County Jail continues to accept official documents directly through postal mail (government ID cards, medical cards, diplomas, checks, etc.). Are these documents delivered to incarcerated individuals?

Official documents will be held on file for the incarcerated individuals.

How long does it take for an incarcerated individual to receive non-legal mail?

Within 24 hours of receipt, Pigeonly will open and scan incoming mail, share the electronic scan with Marin County Jail for further screening, then print and prepare the mail for shipment. Printed mail is delivered to Marin County Jail via Priority Mail and will be received within 1-3 days of shipment.

How long is mail held at Pigeonly's processing facility?

Original copies of postal mail are held for 45 days. After this period, it is destroyed.

I sent mail to an incarcerated person and it was returned as undeliverable. Why?

It may have been returned because it violates mail policy. All received mail will be inspected for prohibited materials. Mail that contains the following will be flagged and is subject to being marked as undeliverable: nudity, explicit sexual material, obscene material, violent language, promotion of violence, and contraband such as but not limited to weapons, drugs, or items of an unknown substance or odor.

I'm a formerly incarcerated individual and want access to all my scanned mail pieces. Can I get a copy of them?

After release, formerly incarcerated individuals can email support@pigeonly.com with their name/ID number to download their scanned mail items for free.
